

Biography: Pastor Sandra V. Miller

Sandra Miller Ministries

"A woman of God that is dedicated, determined and destined for greatness."

Pastor Sandra Miller was born and raised in Charleston, South Carolina, and is the first born of seven children. She attended Mount Hermon R.M.U.E. Church and was very active in Sunday school, Junior Ushers' and the Youth Department. She and her husband (of over 38 years), Dr. Philip N. Miller, are the parents of 7 children, 11 grandchildren and 1 great-grandson.

Pastor Miller was called to the ministry while serving under the Pastorate and tutelage of the late Overseer Goldie L. Ricketts. The training she received for service and preparation for the future qualified her to be licensed first as an Evangelist. Since that time God has blessed this woman to minister the gospel in various states including New York, Massachusetts, South Carolina, Delaware, Atlanta and Rhode Island. She currently serves as pastor at the Shekinah Family Worship Center, Providence, R.I. This ministry was birthed out by Pastor Sandra, and her husband. They are inspired by the mandate of Jesus in Mt. 28:18-20, and dedicated to being kingdom builders. God also privileged her with tenure as Pastor at Open Arms Deliverance Temple & Training Center.

Pastor Miller is the visionary of The Women Fellowship of New England, and the Sandra Miller Ministries. She is also the founder and managing editor for the Virtuous Women Gazette Newsletter. God has graced her as a columnist, a seminar speaker, conference consultant and host. God has equipped her to speak a Word in "due season". She is recipient of an Honorary Doctorate of Humanities, for her significant contribution to culture, society, and the church. Pastor "M" is dedicated to the people of God, and quite often referred to as a mother, mentor and midwife.

